

Badiali & Partners

PLANNING EXCELLENCE

In this continuously developing field, Badiali & Partners boasts many years of experience assisting our clients with the following:

- ④ governance and organization
- ④ administration and supervision
- ④ administration and supervision

The Corporate Law Advisory activities allow Badiali & Partners to assist clients with personalized services mainly dedicated to the following areas of involvement.

CORPORATE AND CONTRACT CONSULTANCY

The development of corporate structures both domestically and internationally requires corporate and tax expertise, as well as specific knowledge of local regulations. Badiali & Partners accompanies clients through this process and provides references in foreign countries for any further necessity and support.

We offer consultancy on corporate matters and contracts, with both domestic and international focus, as well as assistance in the creation of corporate structures and groups.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

Badiali & Partners supports clients in defining or changing corporate governance models.

In doing so, we provide assessments regarding the compliance of the same models with international standards, regulations, and best practices.

We support investors in evaluating the effectiveness of the administrative and supervisory bodies, and also by offering strategic advice on issues concerning the governance of their companies, management and remuneration policies, and sustainability in general.

We accompany entrepreneurs so that they see their expectations fulfilled as much as possible.

Our Expertise

CORPORATE LAW

PROTECTION OF HERITAGE AND GENERATIONAL TRANSFER

This consultancy regards the search for tools to protect assets and for generational transfer.

The correct approach to these issues that Badiali & Partners intends to convey to its customers is oriented towards a proactive management of protection strategies and generational transfer rather than management of urgencies and emergencies. The preventive approach to these aspects concerning personal and corporate assets is increasingly successful in these strategies.

NON-PROFIT

Legal, administrative, and fiscal consultancy for the establishment and management of associations, foundations, and other non-profit organizations.
